Welcome

Now that you are finishing up Primary School and moving over to Secondary School, we thought we would take the chance to send you this Newsletter with some helpful tips for settling into your new school - we have some helpful tips for you, and we also have some competitions to help with your stationery/book supplies!!

Secondary School - Helpful tips for first day and beyond.

How to start a conversation with someone new?

Approach someone who might be open to talk

Try to make eye contact and smile.

Introduce yourself

It's easy to forget to introduce yourself when you're already deep into conversation with someone.

Listen

Try to take the time to listen. Respond to things they say and ask questions.

Talk about anything

If you want to start a conversation, talk about the weather, how unreliable the bus is or anything that comes to mind

Have 'go-to' topics

If you get anxious meeting new people and your mind goes blank it can help to have some 'go-to' topics to talk about. comments specifically for these kinds

Try not to overshare

If it's your first time talking to someone remember to keep the conversation light and general.

Exchange details or organise to do something outside of where you met

If you enjoyed the other person's company and felt the conversation went well you could suggest going for a coffee another time, or even just exchange numbers or connect on social media.
