

What we do with your personal data?

Core Credit Union collects your information and that relating to your parents or legal guardian for several reasons. This privacy notice describes how Core Credit Union, use personal information about you before and after the Credit Union Art Competition 2023.

Core Credit Union is the organiser of the Core Credit Union Art Competition 2023. The address is Clara House, 37 Glenageary Park, Glenageary, Co Dublin A96 XE26.

WHO LOOKS AFTER YOUR INFORMATION?

For the purposes of this competition, Core Credit Union, is the main controller, and this Privacy Notice reflects how data is managed. Core Credit Union is the primary data controller of the personal information you give us.

OUR USE OF YOUR INFORMATION

When you participate in the Core Credit Union Art Competition 2023, we may process your data in a variety of ways, for several different reasons and with a range of legal justifications based on contractual obligations, your consent and legitimate interest.

FULFILLING CONTRACT

We need certain data to enter you in the competition. As such, we process your data where the processing is necessary to:

- Fulfil the Credit Union Art Competition 2023 terms & conditions.
- Administer the competition.
- Deal with your enquiries and requests; and
- Contact the winners.

YOUR CONSENT

We seek consent to use the photographic images of the winners, together with their name and ages, and that this data may be used in advertising and publicity. You can remove your consent for the processing of your image at any time before publication by emailing members@corecu.ie however we will still need to publish your name and age if you are a winner (see below).

LEGITIMATE INTEREST

We require your name and age for advertising and publicity purposes. The legal basis for this is legitimate interest on the basis that we need to publicly identify winners for authenticity and transparency purposes.

WILL YOUR INFORMATION BE SHARED?

Winner's names, age and category will be displayed in the annual Core Credit Union calendar and other publicity campaigns (such as posters, cards, and other point of sale materials). The calendar will be distributed to all branches for members to freely take, and local press as well as magazines, internal publications/web, and social media (e.g., Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram).

Where appropriate we may disclose your personal data to third parties who may help us run and administer the Credit Union Art Competition 2023 such as printers, ad agencies and service providers. We may also disclose personal data where we are legally obliged to disclose your information such as to our regulators or the Gardai.

HOW AND WHY DO WE COLLECT AND USE YOUR INFORMATION?

We will only process your personal information for the purposes of the Credit Union Art Competition 2023. Your personal information will be collected following your completion of the entry form.

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

We will collect, store, and use the following categories of personal information about you: Your name, month and year of birth, age, address, health data (where you enter the additional needs category), school/college/club/organisation, and photograph.

DO YOU HAVE TO GIVE US YOUR INFORMATION?

You must give us some information to ensure you have complied with the terms and conditions of the Core Credit Union Art Competition 2023 and to administer the competition but there is some information that you can choose whether to let us have or not. When we ask you for information that you don't have to give us, we will ask for your permission and let you know why we want it and what we will do with it. If you don't want us to have the information in those cases, you won't have to.

HOW LONG WILL WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION?

We don't keep it forever, only for as long as we need it to help us do the thing, we needed it for. We will destroy your personal data in a safe manner within two years of the competition prize giving ceremony. Consents relating to photographic images will be retained for as long as the photographic image is being used.

GETTING IN TOUCH If you're worried about how we get and use your information, you can speak to Core Credit Union, who will be able to help you and answer any questions that you have. If you want to speak to somebody else, you can call the people who make sure that organisations like us are looking after your information correctly. Their contact details are set out below.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS?

You and your parents have the right to:

Ask us to change information you think is wrong. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information. This right always applies. There are some exemptions, which means you may not always receive all the information we process.

In certain circumstances ask us to remove information when it's not needed anymore.

Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest and there is something about your situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground.

Tell us you don't want your information to be processed. This applies only in certain circumstances.

Where we are processing your data based solely on your consent you have a right to withdraw that consent at any time and free of charge

Request that we: a) provide you with a copy of any relevant personal data in a reusable format; or b) request that we transfer your relevant personal data to another controller where it's technically feasible to do so.

Please note that the above rights don't always apply and there may be some limitations.
